« DESTINATION FRANCE » A video by France Galop

A video called “Destination France” has just been launched by France Galop in order to promote French racing, flat and national hunt. Almost 3 minutes long, this film features beautiful images from our country’s training centres, stud farms and, of course, race meetings that make France a prestigious and well-known racing industry worldwide. The main attractions of the French system are highlighted including the elegance of the French lifestyle, which is so attractive to foreign owners. Supported by interviews from a range of our industry professionals, this video is a great tool to promote French racing to everyone.
